Employees and applicants shall not be subjected to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion or discrimination because they have engaged in or may engage in any of the following activities: (1) Filing a complaint; (2) Assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Section 503) or any other Federal, State or local law requiring equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities; (3) Opposing any act or practice made unlawful by section 503 or its implementing regulations in this part or any other Federal, State or local law requiring equal opportunity for disabled persons; or (4) Exercising any other right protected by section 503 or its implementing regulations in this part.

As President of Loos & Co., Inc., I am committed to the principles of Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity. In order to ensure dissemination and implementation of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action throughout all levels of the company, I have selected Lynn Bouthillier as the Human Resources Manager for Loos & Co., Inc. One of the Human Resources Manager's duties will be to establish and maintain an internal audit and reporting system to allow for effective measurement of Loos & Co., Inc.'s programs.

In furtherance of Loos & Co., Inc.'s policy regarding Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity, Loos & Co., Inc. has developed a written Affirmative Action Program which sets forth the policies, practices and procedures that Loos & Co., Inc. is committed to in order to ensure that its policy of nondiscrimination and affirmative action for qualified individuals with disabilities and qualified protected veterans is accomplished. This Affirmative Action Program is available for inspection by any employee or applicant for employment upon request between 8AM and 5PM at the Human Resources department. Any questions should be directed to me, your supervisor, or Lynn Bouthillier, Human Resources Manager.
